Natalie Sayer

Location: Surprise, AZ, USA

Natalie is a senior level global executive coach with Global Coaches Network.

Natalie Sayer is a professional global coach who works with individuals, business leaders, and teams to navigate the changes emerging from our always connected, fast-paced, global society. Natalie's clients transition with reduced stress levels, create strategies for success, become more open to others and have found a greater sense of hope in their lives. Her clients say that she offers a unique perspective they do not find anywhere else.

Natalie brings over 20 years experience in the Automotive Industry. She has worked in both the USA and Mexico; her experiences span management, design, manufacturing, business divestiture, continuous improvement, strategic planning, business system design and implementation, facilitation and team building/group dynamics. She is a certified Six Sigma Black Belt. Natalie is an enthusiastic people person, with a technical background. She draws upon her experiences managing cross cultural teams, working abroad and traveling.

Natalie holds a Bachelors of Mechanical Engineering from the University of Dayton and a Masters of Science in Manufacturing Systems Engineering from the University of Michigan. She is a graduate of Coach University and Corporate Coach University. She is certified in the use of The Cultural Orientations Indicator® and the Cultural Orientations Model (TM). Natalie is also fluent in Spanish.

She is a member of the International Coach Federation, Arizona Organization of Women in International Trade (AWIT), Institute of Management Consultants (Board member of Arizona Chapter) and National Speakers Association, candidate program.
